Brief Summary and Statement of Need:

This project will provide funding for one full-time school counselor at Meade River School in Atqasuk. This position currently does not exist at this school. School district counselors serve the children in the schools, as well as the community as a whole. This professional counselor will provide counseling in the areas of coping skills, grieving, anger management, decision-making and career counseling. It will also provide support to teachers in developing behavior management plans and crisis intervention, and training to identify children and youth at risk of suicide or in need of referral for multiple treatment options.
