Additional Information / Prior Funding History:Project Description/Justification:

Alaska has been chosen to host the 2014 Arctic Winter Games. The Arctic Winter Games International Committee will announce the hosting city in March 2011. Fairbanks will be submitting a bid to be the Host Society and Community for the games. This funding will be used for the Arctic Winter Games Host Society start up and preparation for the 2014 games. An infusion of state funds are needed in 2011 to be able to meet the requirements of hosting the Arctic Winter Games in Alaska and operate the prestigious international event.

The funds will be used to get the Host Society up and running in preparation for the 2014 games including covering personal, technology, collateral development, facility upgrades and equipment purchases.
