The Juneau Pioneer Home was completed in 1988 and is currently home to forty-five Alaskan seniors. The Home is nestled in the wetlands along Juneau's Egan Drive. The residents of the Pioneer Home have enjoyed the use of a grand piano donated by Alaskan Pioneer Carol Beery Davis for many years. This piano, however, is 80 years old and has come to the end of its useful life. It no longer can be tuned properly and is difficult to play. This project will replace the old piano with another piano that may be new or used depending on quality, condition, and availability. It will be located at the Juneau Pioneer Home. This will allow for years of enjoyment to the residents of the Juneau Pioneer Home.
