Project Description

Principal's Priority 1

We want to provide support for Eagle Academy's Language Arts Program, Spalding. The texts are designed so children can practice reading text that incorporates the phonograms (sounds) they have learned. They are divided into four levels to reinforce understanding of text structure, author's point of view, fluent and expressive reading, as well as comprehension.

Benefits if Project is Funded

Our goal with this project is to provide instruction that will ensure proficient or advanced readers by the end of third grade. These materials will be used during Response to Instruction interventions to provide extra support to struggling readers.
