Project Description

Principal's Priority

2

Our Romig Middle School and West High School Library services two schools, with a total number of students equaling 2400 every year. Our selections are outdated, small, and in need of drastic updating.

Benefits if Project is Funded

All students of Romig Middle School and West High School will benefit from this grant. Our library will continue to grow into a state of the art, twenty-first century library. If this grant is not completed, the library will continue to be used, but not at an efficient level.
