Project Description

Principal's Priority 2

2

The nearest library to the Trailside community is 6.5 miles away. The PTA and community support keeping the school library open for 2 mornings a week during the entire summer to promote reading skills, fluency and comprehension, and ultimately increase student achievement. In addition to the cost of staffing the library and the required custodial funds.

Benefits if Project is Funded

The benefit of the summer library project is increased student achievement.

Impacts if Project is not Funded

If the summer library is not supported, the students, especially the economically disadvantaged students, will have very limited access to age appropriate literature.
