Project Description

Principal's Priority

3

Turnagain is unique because it has dual programs; Neighborhood and Russian Immersion. The teacher's in the Russian Immersion program have had to create the curriculum, there is not Russian materials (science and social studies) that we are able to purchase. Teachers are in need of updated reading materials for students and materials to support instruction.

Benefits if Project is Funded

Teachers will have new materials, students will have enhanced classroom libraries to access, and the Russian Immersion teachers will have the chance to refresh out dated materials. Special Education teachers would be able to buy materials for student'€™s with significant learning disabilities and order materials for student'€™s instructional levels.
