Additional Information / Prior Funding History:

Received $1,350,000 in federal funding for FY1999. Received $1,421,900 in Federal Authority for FY2000.

Project Description/Justification:

The Long Range federal construction program has been approved by the National Guard Bureau for the construction of three new federal scout armories a year through the year FY04. As these facilities are located in various communities throughout the state, individual construction site costs vary. Planning and design costs are percentages based upon construction costs and are also 100% federally reimbursed.

Description of Work

Site preparation and construction of three federal scout armories

Project Benefits

Provide added community infrastructure for rural Alaskan villages. Rural Alaskans will benefit from increased community support and job opportunities provided by the Army National Guard Federal Scout program.
