Project Description Principal's Priority 2

25-Multi-media projectors with document cameras for each classroom. In order to narrow our current learning gaps we as a staff must adopt and implement strategies which provide varied and efficient practice of standards based skills. Electric textbooks and workbooks free students and teachers from traditional teaching methods and allow for individual or differentiate learning process which, research shows, narrows learning gaps.

Benefits if Project is Funded

If this technology is utilized within a classroom, it will provide more and varied distributed practice for all individuals. The more options for individual students to practice their standards based skills results in narrowed learning gaps. Our classrooms are filled with individuals who are learning on their own continuum, in order to provide support to all we as a staff must have varied resources and technology can provide that.
