Detailed Project Description and Justification:

Abbott Loop Community Park is one of the city's newest parks. It is a year round multiuse facility proving a wide range of recreational activities from team sports like baseball, softball and soccer to hiking, running, biking and cross country skiing. It also provides direct access to the trail system in Far North Bicentennial Park.

The Community Park Master Plan calls for a playground facility for young children so it can be a full use park available to all residents.
