Project Description/Justification:

Funding is requested to re-side the exterior of Armory buildings and create the design, bid ready documents for complete roof replacement. The Sitka Armory and surrounding facilities have metal roofs that are showing signs of rust and the affects of the salt air. The Armory roof has exceeded its useful life expectancy and a design is necessary to contract out the replacement of the roofs. The design will identify any hazardous materials that require removal, increase the r-value of insulation, calculate the structural load, and maximize cost effectiveness and benefit of the roofing material.

The buildings in the Sitka Armory complex are sided with metal. The siding has rusted through along the bottom portion of the buildings and the screws are starting to break down in the salt air. This project replaces the siding before the outer shell loses its integrity and conditions destroy the insulation and interior. Priorities and cost estimates may need to be changed to accommodate emergency maintenance projects not listed, actual project costs, and other considerations.
