This request is to purchase Social Emotional Learning Curriculum at a cost of $3,000.00. This curriculum will directly impact student behavior. Gladys Wood needs a school-wide discipline program that is research-based and one that aligns with Response to Instruction expectation. In order to learn, students have to behave well first. A school-wide discipline curriculum would give teachers and students a common language and set of expectations, making it easier for students to know what appropriate behavior looks like in all school settings.

Benefits if Project is Funded
