Project Description

Principal's Priority 3

There have been collaborative conversations and meetings between classroom grade level teacher groups and the librarian to develop groups of books, and electronic books that are aligned with our Language Arts program. This is a new focus of our state and district to make sure our students have exposure and expertise in the area of close reading of content and comprehension in all areas of language arts.

Benefits if Project is Funded

Our students need to have books, and electronic books that challenge them in the areas of close reading non fiction books that are aligned with our Language Arts curriculum and the standards that guide our instructional focus.
