Project Description/Justification:

Team Alaska was established by the state in 1968 as a statewide organization to organize, select, uniform, and transport Alaska's young athletes to the biennial international Arctic Winter Games. More than 20 sporting events, traditional dance, and music, make the Arctic Winter Games a very important cultural event for young Alaskans.

For many youth, this event is a pivotal time in their lives. Over the years, many young Team Alaska athletes have expressed how important the experience of the games has been in their lives. It is the goal of Arctic Winter Games Team Alaska to keep the registration fee paid by participants at a level attainable by all young Alaskans. Through an outreach program, these funds ensure that Alaskan youth can participate in the 2016 Games in Greenland.
