Brief Summary and Statement of Need:

Procured through a competitive bid process, this project is anticipated to be a coordinated and case managed effort directed at the chronic homeless population and bringing together, in an integrated effort, the full range of wrap around services. This program will be coordinated by a single entity, but services delivered by a variety of community entities equipped to provide needs related services. These services will likely include detoxification, short term, and perhaps, long term housing, job skills training and potential employment and other support services, as well as access to a limited range of health care services.
