Department of Health and Social Services Subsidized Adoptions & Guardianship Component Budget Summary

Component: Subsidized Adoptions & Guardianship*Contribution to Department's Mission

Facilitates permanent placements through adoptive or guardianship homes for the increasing number of children in state custody for whom special needs make them hard to place. Adoption is viewed as the most permanent placement for a child and is therefore the preferable option.

Guardianships are considered for children who cannot be considered for adoption, but for whom a reasonably permanent home can be provided through guardianship. This is often the best choice for children who cannot live with their parents, but continue to maintain an important emotional tie with their families that should not be severed.

Core Services

- Facilitate permanency through recruitment of homes for children who need permanent homes; home studies on potential adoptive and guardianship families; pre-adoption services for the child and family; and post-adoption services after the final adoption or guardianship court hearing.
- Provide for permanent homes to children that are in the custody of the state and who are unlikely to be adopted without a subsidy.

Major Component Accomplishments in 2016

The Office of Children's Services has continued to experience success in finding homes for children as they are simultaneously presented in the Alaska Adoption Exchange, the Northwest Adoption Exchange, and AdoptUSKids websites for the recruitment of adoptive homes. Alaska's Preparation for Adoption Readiness of Kids in Alaska (PARKA) Project focuses on intensive preparation of families who are seeking adoption of special needs children in foster care. Since 2010, 35 hard-to-place children with special needs have been placed with families who have graduated from the program. At the end of June 2016, there were 299 new adoptions and guardianships with 3,330 adoption and guardianship subsidy agreements continuing into FY2017.

Key Component Challenges

When children leave foster care, their special needs are reassessed to determine whether they will need continuing assistance through the Subsidized Adoption and Guardianship program. Approximately 95 percent of children exiting custody, through adoption or legal guardianship, have special needs and will continue to receive state benefits through the subsidy programs.

Children that have been removed from situations of maltreatment and experienced physical, mental, or emotional disturbances continue to struggle even after being removed from their home. The Office of Children's Services has recognized for some time that the level of disturbance and complexity of problems for children in custody is increasing. These factors make it difficult to find permanent adoptive or guardianship homes without providing a subsidy. It is preferable and more cost-effective for the state to provide a means for children to be given a permanent home with a state-funded subsidy than for the state to continue being solely financially responsible for the child. The adoption or guardianship subsidy covers the costs of the child's special needs and is available to the family until the child reaches age 18.

Significant Changes in Results to be Delivered in FY2018

The subsidy program will continue to support adoption and guardianship families by helping to defray the costs of care and meeting the child's ongoing special needs. There has been an upward trend in the number of continuing and on-going subsidies.

Federal guidelines for Title IV-E federal adoptions define a hard-to-place child as a "minor who is not likely to be adopted or to obtain a guardian by reason of physical or mental disability, emotional disturbance, recognized high risk of physical or mental disease, age, membership in a sibling group, racial or ethnic factors, or any combination of these conditions."  Grant to outside vendor (Northwest Resources Associates) to recruit adoptive families that reflect the ethnic and racial diversity of the children served by OCS. Costs include training and support of resource families designed to improve the safety of children in care, streamline procedures, and avoid delays. $575.0	31,831.7	35,130.3	35,130.3
