The amount of FY2016 payments that were deferred to FY2017, will allow the Medicaid program to timely process expenditures for FY2017. Defects in the Alaska Medicaid Health Enterprise system, which the Department of Health and Social Services and Xerox have addressed over the past three years, are now corrected; however, in FY2016, the Department was still reprocessing claims submitted by providers for Medicaid services incurred in FY2015. As a result of reprocessing these claims at the close of FY2016, the Department had to limit the number of claims that were to process for Medicaid providers. These provider payments were pushed into FY2017. Without this authority the same issue that arose at the close of FY2016, holding off on processing checks to providers, will take place again but at an earlier date. This will also impact the FY2018 budget authority if the provider payments are slowed or stopped towards the end of FY2017.
