Major Component Accomplishments in 2017

Alaska State Council on the Arts – Public Corporation HB137

House Bill 137 (CH16, SLA2017) designating the Alaska State Council on the Arts (ASCA) as a public corporation and instrumentality of the state was approved unanimously in the house and senate in April 2017 and became law on July 1, 2017.

A restructured ASCA will allow the agency to grow and meet the increasing needs of an arts community poised to become a robust arts industry. ASCA will continue to be housed within the Alaska's Department of Education and Early Development, but its new structure will provide the agency greater flexibility. As a public corporation, ASCA is not subject to the State's Personnel Act or Procurement Act, but in place of those requirements, the agency will adopt policies and procedures which conform to the laws and ethics that govern these organizational functions. Partnerships, along with state and federal funding will continue to support ASCA's grants and programs according to the strategic plan and current regulations.

As ASCA transitions to this new structure in FY2018, programs will undergo evaluations and planning that will be informed, thoughtful, and based on ASCA's mission and strategic goals.

License Plate SB 154

Senate Bill 154, authorizing ASCA to sell an artist designed license plate, was signed by Governor Walker in June 2016. In FY2017, ASCA administered a design competition and public vote for an arts license plate that captures the excitement and creative energies of Alaska. The winner will be announced in November 2017. The plate will cost $50, with a portion of revenues, after production cost, going to support programs of the ASCA. The competition will be held every four years.

Alaska Native Arts

In FY2015, ASCA partnered with The Cook Inlet Regional, Inc (CIRI) Foundation (TCF), the nonprofit arm of the Cook Inlet Native tribal corporation, to research and develop a professional business development workbook for Alaska Native artists. In addition to resources such as business development, writing an artist statement and resume, the workbook offers specific guidelines for using traditional Native materials in artwork that is sold in the marketplace. In Phase 2 of the partnership, the workbook was utilized in a series of workshops provided by ASCA in Dillingham, Nome and Ketchikan. These workshops continue to be offered across the state in host rural communities. ASCA regularly travels to rural communities to present Rural Arts Professional Development workshops, which primarily benefit extremely rural and Alaska Native artists. These workshops provide tools for marketing, utilizing technology and social media, as well as information on how they can find funding and other types of support. ASCA provided a series of intensive workshop programming in partnership with the Sealaska Heritage Institute, the National Endowment for the Arts for Lemon Creek Correctional Center incarcerated artists, halfway house residents and low income artists in FY2017. The workbook is distributed as the core curriculum at all workshops provided in FY2016 and FY2017.

In FY2016, ASCA and TCF partnered to fund a unique pilot program, Designed to ASCA's Alaska Native Leadership cohort recommendations, the experimental program invested directly in ASCA's Alaska Native Arts Leadership cohort's professional development and underwrote community capacity building through the delivery of art-making opportunities to four rural Alaska communities. This programming, partnership and grant making has been repeated for the FY2017 year.

ASCA Leadership cohort members were invited to submit proposals to develop, organize and implement an art-making workshop within their home community. A total of eight unique proposals (four in FY2016 and four in FY2017) were awarded funding through an adjudicated process to support Leader cohort honoraria and art workshop materials.

Arts Education and Munartet Project

In 2014, ASCA was approached by the Margaret A Cargill Foundation (MACF), to work with ASCA on a 10-year initiative for arts education teacher preparedness.

In FY2016, ASCA began The Munartet Project: Teaching and Learning in and Through the Arts and Culture in Kodiak, funded by the Margaret A. Cargill Philanthropies (MACP). In partnership with the Kodiak Island Borough School District, the Munartet Project serves to increase pre-service and early career teacher confidence and competence to teach in and through arts and culture. The first cohort of teachers participating in the project has been identified, and began working through the Munartet Project in late summer of 2016. In FY2018, the Munartet Project will have completed its first two years of implementation, and ASCA has applied to the MACP for the next three years of implementation. The partnership includes pre-service and early career cohorts supported by the 4 partners: Kodiak Island Borough School District (KIBSD), Kodiak College-University of Alaska, the Alutiig Museum and Kodiak Arts Council. The project is supporting a certified Arts & Culture Coordinator position through KIBSD, and the Munartet Learning Community which consists of mentor teachers and administrators, teaching artists, culture bearers and elders along with the pre-service and early career cohorts. In the first school year of implementation (2016-2017), 5 early career teachers (years 1-5 of practice) and 11 mentor teachers were identified and inducted into the project, and 9 pre-service teachers were identified and inducted into the project. In the second year of implementation, to date for the 2017-2018 school year, the early career cohort has grown to include 7 teachers in KIBSD and 13 pre-service cohort members. These cohort members receive support including professional development, course work, arts and culture experiences, coaching and mentoring with the intended outcomes that, "Kodiak teachers will feel supported, confident and competent to teach in and through the arts and culture as they develop in their profession." and that "More local Kodiak residents will pursue teaching as a viable and attractive career option." While the center of this project is the cohort of early career and pre-service teachers, the activities of the Munartet Project are serving a wider group of KIBSD teachers and their classrooms through the development and provision of arts and culture curriculum and resources, in-service engagement, and other opportunities made available by the Munartet partners.

Collective Approaches to Arts Education

An additional component of ASCA's work, including funds from multiple sources, was identified through work with the Munartet Project: "The partnership will provide meaningful input towards ASCA's goal of reimagining its scope and role to represent, support and advance the creative endeavors of citizens and agencies throughout Alaska." To date, since FY2016, this work has included convening Alaskans around the idea of Collective Approaches to Arts Education, developing a community adaptive change approach led by a standing Arts Education Advisory Community, and the development of a framework of goals and Theory of Change around the idea that more Alaskans will have access to teaching and learning in and through the arts and culture in Alaska when partnerships and coalitions support community and school efforts.

New and Strengthened Partnerships

In FY2017, ASCA was selected as one of 12 sites in the nation to hold a summit in partnership with Joint Base Elemendorf as part of the National Endowment for the Arts' initiative, "Creative Forces", which supports healing and the arts for service members with post-traumatic stress disorder (PTSD) and traumatic brain

- injury. The summit is scheduled for February 21-22, 2018.
- The Anchorage Economic Development Corporation (AEDC) is another strong partner with ASCA. Their Live Work Play initiative has a Creative Placemaking (CP) area of focus, and the ASCA Executive Director serves as its co-chair. This initiative is a multi-sector approach to making Anchorage the #1 city to Live Work and Play by 2025. Anchorage does not have a local arts agency (LAA)—one of the few communities in Alaska without one—so the AEDC CP committee and ASCA are working to implement a LAA that is innovative and dynamic, positioned squarely at the nexus of the economic and community development. The project has received financial support from the city and the mayor supports the creation of this public/private entity.
- ASCA's collaboration with TCF on the Alaska Native Arts Workbook and Art Shops has resulted in great interest in TCF continuing to expand ASCA's services to their shareholders.
- In the past, ASCA has funded Sealaska Heritage Institute for operating support. In FY2016, they received ASCA's National Endowment for the Arts Folk and Traditional Arts Infrastructure Grant which opened the door for a stronger partnership that has evolved into professional development and artist training for incarcerated individuals in FY2017.

Percent for Art and the Contemporary Art Bank

- ASCA manages the state Percent for Art program, which includes the Contemporary Art Bank, a program created to achieve two primary goals: to expose more Alaskans to high quality work by contemporary Alaskan artists through the lending of original art to public offices throughout Alaska, and to provide support to professional artists in Alaska through the purchase of their work. In FY2017 ASCA processed 153 loans for the Contemporary Art Bank. This collection of artwork made by living Alaskan artists is available for two-year loans to state buildings and public offices.
- ASCA managed 5 public art commissions through the State of Alaska's Percent for Art contracts, and informally advised on four other projects. In addition to working with a variety of partners to manage Percent for Art commissions, ASCA also receives contract revenue from the University of Alaska system and the Anchorage Airport for the management of their public art programs. In FY2017, this revenue supported a contractor to administer projects because the Fine Arts Administrator position was vacant for the fiscal year.

Key Component Challenges

- To meet increasing demand for grants and programs in all regions of the state, while also serving as the voice of cultural policy for Alaska;
- The arts are in a turbulent time, and the ways in which citizens and communities want to participate in the arts is changing drastically. ASCA is leading an effort to help arts organizations respond to these changes and remain sustainable and fiscally viable, while also expanding their reach and service to their communities. With limited state and federal funds, this effort is conducted largely through convenings, professional development and consultations;
- To expand the Arts in Education program by utilizing a Collective Impact approach to supporting school, district and education priorities through targeted, strategic grant investments; and,
- To help Alaskan artists have economically viable careers through promoting Alaskan artists and their work through the Silver Hand and Made in Alaska initiatives. To provide artists, arts organizations and creative industries with business and professional development opportunities.

Significant Changes in Results to be Delivered in FY2019

With a new strategic plan in place, ASCA intends to evaluate its arts education grants and also re-envision its grant programs so that they can better serve the arts sector and the state, as well as to streamline processes for maximum efficiency. ASCA currently has 12 grant programs that are managed by three ASCA program officers (one position is currently vacant). By re-conceptualizing the approach to public investment in the arts, ASCA will utilize limited dollars more efficiently, while maximizing the impact of the support for ASCA grantees.

As a result of grant requirements and internal efficiencies, authorization has been realigned within the Alaska State Council on the Arts (ASCA) component to reflect projected FY2018 expenditures.

National Endowment of the Arts (NEA) federal funding fully supports travel related to community workshops, participant travel for the Poetry Out Load project and Governor's Awards, annual ASCA in-person meetings, Rural Arts Summit, Native and Community Arts program, and several other partnership meetings and conferences.

Additional grant authorization will support the 50/50 NEA match requirement, additional New Visions grant awards, and additional Arts in Education grant awards.

Within the Arts in Public Places funding source, all existing authorization has been transferred to the Capital Outlay line item strictly for the use of purchasing works of art.
