Contribution to Department's Mission

Core Services

- Provide payments that replace Alaska Temporary Assistance, Adult Public Assistance, Supplemental Security Income, and Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program benefits for individuals who would lose eligibility or whose benefits would be reduced if they received a Permanent Fund Dividend.

Major Component Accomplishments in 2018

7002	Benefits	SSI - Social Security and the Division of Public Assistance have entered into a written agreement, which operates as follows: The SSI program has a current need standard of $579. Under SSI rules, as long as the Dividend exceeds $579, each recipient keeps SSI eligibility through the month of receipt of the Dividend, but suffers an overpayment for that month. SSI establishes a recovery of that overpayment, drawing $564 in full repayment from an account into which Public Assistance has deposited Hold Harmless state funds. This guarantees no service level disruption in Social Security Administration's Alaskan offices. RSA with the Division of Public Assistance, Adult Public Assistance (APA) component for the APA state Supplemental overpayment resulting from Dividend receipt and "recovers" this State payment with hold harmless funds. The Food Stamp Program defines Dividend payments in such a way that eligibility for food stamps is lost	12,424.6	16,024.7
