Brief Summary and Statement of Need:

This project is a request from the Exxon Valdez Oil Spill Trustee Council (EVOSTC) Public Advisory Committee that an outreach program be developed to educate and inform the public of the Exxon Valdez Oil Spill event. EVOSTC initially provided funding to the Division of Parks and Outdoor Recreation (DPOR) in FY2019 for this work. The Trustee Council approved funding in its FY2020 work plan to focus outreach efforts at locations in the spill area that was not covered by the initial project.

Project Description/Justification:

The funds will be used to produce final products including interpretive media and various publications. The completed work will further satisfy the Public Advisory Committee's request for an outreach program that highlights the work of the trustee council and the program's benefits to the state, federal partners, and the general public. Funds are provided by the Exxon Valdez Oil Spill Trustee Council (EVOSTC) settlement fund.
