

State of Alaska FY2024 Governor's Operating Budget

Department of Health Work Services Component Budget Summary

Component: Work Services

Contribution to Department's Mission

Support and promote the efforts of Alaska Temporary Assistance Program recipients to attain economic self-sufficiency through employment.

Core Services

- Contracts and grants to deliver welfare to work services. Services include job readiness and placement, job retention and advancement services, job development and coaching, case management, transportation assistance and other support services for temporary assistance recipients.
- Assist program participants with gaining paid employment at the earliest opportunity.
- Support initiatives to promote and support family self-sufficiency, including screening for and referral to specialized services and other benefit programs that reduce dependence on Alaska Temporary Assistance Program benefits.
- Provide wage subsidies to employers who create new jobs and hire welfare recipients to fill the positions.
- Provide employment and training services to Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program recipients.
- Develop employer-based, short-term training opportunities for in-demand occupations for welfare recipients.
- Promote employer and community involvement in welfare to work efforts.
- Reduce prevalence of out-of-wedlock and teen pregnancies, including educational strategies around prevention of statutory rape.
- Support partnership within the Department of Health and Social Services and with community agencies to coordinate services that promote the self-sufficiency, safety, health, and well-being of Alaska Temporary Assistance Program benefit recipients.
- Work First remains a critical part of helping parents, who are able to work full-time, get a job immediately, while also ensuring those parents unable to go to work full-time have the services and resources they need to go to work as soon as possible.

Major Component Accomplishments in 2022

- Exceeded federally required all families and two-parent participation rates for another year in federal fiscal year 2021.
- Implemented a formalized client referral process between the Division of Public Assistance and the Department of Labor and Workforce Development for recipients of Temporary Assistance for Needy Families.

Key Component Challenges

- Providing meaningful work opportunities for families living in rural regions of the state where there are fewer permanent full-time jobs.
- System related challenges resulting from the department's cyberattack and cleanup efforts.

Significant Changes in Results to be Delivered in FY2024

- Redesign service delivery strategy emphasizing virtual connection to work activities and job placement.
- Expand Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program Education and Training (SNAP E&T) providers and services throughout Alaska.
